

EXHIBITION SCHEDULE

That DAM Box Show 2

An auction event featuring works by area artists made from old film boxes, contributed by Wayne State University Library Systems. All proceeds to benefit the Detroit Artists Market. Closing silent auction event August 20th, 6-9pm.

August 10-20, 2010

Tenebroso - Sergio De Giusti

We begin our 2010-11 season with a special exhibition highlighting the work of Sergio De Giusti, who has been a key figure in Detroit's art community for more than forty years.

September 10 – October 16, 2010

Art for the Holidays

The entire gallery is transformed into a winter market with works by more than 125 local artists. Perfect for holiday gifts, collecting, or decorating, there is something unique for everyone.

November 12 – December 23, 2010

DAM Design Show

The entire creative process is explored- from concept to design to creation - resulting in an artistic and functional piece. Designers will take on this process in creating objects for the "bath". We will provide an intimate look into how design "happens", and results in unique functional pieces. Considering design from another perspective, the ticketed opening reception event will feature a fashion show.

January 14 – February 19, 2011

Annual Scholarship Awards and Exhibition

DAM has a 75 year history of supporting emerging artists; we turn the spotlight on the best new artists emerging from the area's stellar arts programs. This year students will be selected from the Cranbrook Art Academy.
