THE 2011 DAM DESIGN SHOW draws attention to Detroit's ever-expanding vision of art and design and focuses on the impact local designers have on our lives. This year's exhibit looks at BATH, from hardware to furnishings to attire. 22 local designers will share their own process of creating items for the bath from sketches to the finished saleable product. During this exclusive opening event, DAM will once again host a runway show, featuring men's and women's bath and spa attire created by five of the area's apparel designers.

The 2011 DAM Design Show is sponsored by Masco Corporation, a leader in brand name products for the home, including Delta®, Brizo® and Hansgrohe® faucets, Alsons® showerheads and BrassCraft® plumbing products.

Founded in 1932, the Detroit Artists Market shows and sells the best of the region's emerging and established contemporary artists.
