Reception June 14 from 6-9 p.m.

Detroit's art scene is rife with overheated expressionism, gritty assemblages, and interrelational social practice. As a counter to this, curator Dennis Nawrocki spotlights 17 artists whose minimalist work focuses on clarity and order instead of overt emotions. These artists have picked up the baton of formalism and forged ahead with groundbreaking art best defined by Ludwig Mies van der Rohe's mantra, "less is more."
