

2021 EXHIBITION SCHEDULE

The Salad Days

January 22 – February 20, 2021

Opening Reception: RSVP on Eventbrite
2000 through 2012 brought a renaissance of self-made artist run spaces in Detroit. Rent was low, space was unlimited, and artists cooperated to bring engaging shows. Coming off a prosperous decade and a world being reshaped by the internet, this was a new beginning...an awakening...an inclusive paradigm shift. Salad Days explores the subculture and work of artists who were working in Detroit in the aughts (2000s), and also features current work reflecting that time period. “Salad Days” is a Shakespearean idiomatic expression meaning a youthful time.

¿ G E N D E R ?

May 7 – June 5, 2021

Opening Reception: RSVP on Eventbrite
¿GENDÉR? is an exhibition of how artists depict gender, using their own thoughts and experiences. Some explore outdated gender stereotypes, some gender roles, some through sexuality, and others confronting the norms that society imposes. In the 21st century, the idea of gender has had many reformations, and the new lexicon reflects that: cisgender, binary, non-binary, gender fluid, androgyny, transsexual, and gender pronouns. The show is but a glimpse into the myriad of possibilities.
