

DETROIT ARTISTS MARKET 2025 EXHIBITION SCHEDULE

Dope Women in Media

January 24 – February 15, 2025

Dope Women in Media recognizes women from the greater Detroit area in film, video, photo, and new media and their research, contribution, and impact to contemporary art and popular culture. Often with Detroit as a backdrop as well as a main character, Dope Women in Media weaves together stories concerning urban ecologies, resilience, violence, familial history, and more to create a collaborative voice.

GIRLHOOD

February 28 – March 29, 2025

Girlhood is often viewed through an innocent lens, reminiscing on the bows in our hair and ballet flats covering painted toes. However, these depictions frequently overlook the diversity of experiences shaped by race, ethnicity, and identity. This exhibition invites an inclusive dialogue on what girlhood means across different lived experiences.

Annual Scholarship Awards & Exhibition – Wayne State University

April 18 - May 17, 2025

The 2025 Annual Scholarship Awards and Exhibition returns for its 57th year to celebrate emerging artists from our local colleges - College for Creative Studies, Cranbrook Academy of Art, and Wayne State University. This year, in partnership with Wayne State Universities, three student finalists will receive the John F. Korachis scholarship award. Also featured in this exhibition are works from outstanding WSU alumni and faculty.

Friends: Furry & Fictional

July 18 - August 9, 2025

From the love of our pets to the awe inspired by wild species, animals remain an important part of history, mythology, and society. An exploration of the relationship between humans and animals, this open call exhibition presents artists who are inspired by or feature animal friends, furry or fictional, in their work. Participation in this call for entry requires an active DAM artist membership and a $10 jury fee to enter.

Under-Discovered Detroit

August 22 – September 20, 2025

Under-Discovered Detroit features artists from some of the many creative niches that exist in Detroit, including artist groups, collectives, and clubs. Representing diverse creative voices by way of medium, ethnicity and career level, ranging from developing; emerging, or mid-career worthy of gallery exhibition, these artists create work that should be seen on a larger and more prominent scale.

DAM Annual Gala

October 7 – October 18, 2025

Join us for DAM's Annual Gala Exhibition this fall! This celebratory exhibition will be on view for just two weeks, culminating with an evening celebration of arts and the entrepreneurial spirit of our community. DAM's Annual Gala raises critical funding to provide exhibition space for local artists to show and sell their work, free educational programs for our community to explore contemporary art, and allows us to execute new initiatives that bolster positive economic change in the arts. Stay tuned for more details to come!

Art for the Holidays

November 7 – December 20, 2025

DAM's festive holiday market returns! Featuring more than 100 local artists, Art for the Holidays is the perfect place to find unique gifts for anyone on your shopping list. Works include paintings, prints, ceramics, glass, jewelry, and more. Participation in this open call requires an active DAM artist membership and a $10 jury fee to enter.

Interested in getting involved with DAM?

For just $35 a year, DAM provides robust opportunities for artist members to sustain and grow their careers including reduced entry fees for juried shows and opportunities to showcase and sell their work through exhibitions, the Elements Gallery, and events.
