

Detroit Artists Market 2025 Exhibitions

*Hot DAM! juried by Dr. Kelli Morgan
July 26 - August 23, 2025*

DAM's annual all member show showcases the creative excellence of our local community! Featuring the work of over 50 artists, this open call exhibition showcases work of all media and is juried by a special guest from the Detroit art community.

Featured Artist: Jeff Schofield

*Under-Discovered Detroit curated by Anita Bates
September 26 - October 25, 2025*

Under-Discovered Detroit features artists from some of the many creative niches that exist in Detroit, including artist groups, collectives, and clubs. Representing diverse creative voices by way of medium, ethnicity and career level, ranging from developing; emerging, or mid-career worthy of gallery exhibition, these artists create work that should be seen on a larger and more prominent scale.

Featured Artist: Mary Lamson-Burke

*Art for the Holidays
November 14 - December 20, 2025*

DAM's festive holiday market returns! Featuring more than 100 local artists, Art for the Holidays is the perfect place to find unique gifts for anyone on your shopping list. Works include paintings, prints, ceramics, glass, jewelry, and more. Participation in this open call requires an active DAM artist membership and a $10 jury fee to enter.

